

Women of Aviation FLY IT FORWARD
WORLDWIDE WEEK

Frederick Municipal Airport      March 10, 2012      10:30 am - 3:30pm

185 women received free flights in March 2011 setting a world-wide record...

...Will Frederick Municipal Airport do it again?

Fly it Forward is brought to you by Women of Aviation Week, whose aim is to introduce as many women to aviation as possible during the week that the first female pilot, Raymond de Larouche received her pilot's certificate in 1910. In 2012 Fly it Forward is back again on Saturday, March 10th, with hopes of outdoing last year's event. Frederick Municipal Airport is inviting women and girls of all ages who have never been in a small aircraft before to come for a free flight! Don't worry; commercial airline flights do not count! Even if you don't qualify for a free flight during Fly it Forward, there are activities for everyone-that means the men, too! Most importantly, this is all FREE! So bring the whole family out for a fun-filled day at the airport!
