

Linda Cain

LINDA CAIN has been a 99 since 1986. Currently she is the Mid-Atlantic Section Ways and Means Chairman and the Old Dominion Chapter AE Scholarship coordinator.

She has served as a Trustee of the Amelia Earhart Birthplace Museum in Atchison, Kansas and the Museum of Women Pilots in Oklahoma City. In 2006 she was Chairman of the 99s International Conference in Washington, D.C.

Linda has been Chairman, vice-chairman and Membership Chair of the Washington, DC Chapter, Treasurer, flying activities co-chairman and Development coordinator of the Old Dominion Chapter.

She has flown several Air Race Classic's and two Great Southern Air Races and has helped many Girl Scout Troops obtain their Aviation Badge.

She has served on the Collier Selection Committee and the Brewer Selection Committee for the NAA.

Her home in the sky is a red, white and blue Cessna 182 named "Old Glory." Linda and her husband Bill reside with their Golden Retriever, Annabelle, in Leesburg, Va. Their daughter, Heather, son-in-law Todd and three grandchildren live in the Tampa/ St. Pete area.

Linda is currently the Chairman of the Board of the Chestnut Hill Benevolent Association in Boston, Massachusetts, which means that she has a special relationship with United Airlines on a monthly and sometimes weekly basis.